

Spark recognizes high quality family child care programs in Oregon

Family child care is a great option for high quality early care and education for children.

*Commitment to Quality

732 Family Child Care programs in Oregon are Spark rated.

Programs are culturally and linguistically diverse.
1 in 3 programs speak languages other than English.

With Spark, I learned that we can take care of children, or we can take care of children professionally. Doing just that makes a big difference in their lives.
